Articles Sought

The HTPAA editorial committee are always seeking contributions for “The Tool Chest” and we encourage members to submit new ideas and themes on all aspects of hand tool subjects.

Perhaps it is an old disappearing craft that needs reporting, a personal experience of your life as an apprentice, leatherworking, coach building, your own tool collection or simply a unique tool known to you, the list is endless.

We can provide assistance with manuscript preparation or help write the article for you if you believe it is a concern.

Assistance is also freely given to provide photographic support to your article.
